

Angelus ad virginem

Gabriel from heaven's king

13th cent. Irish

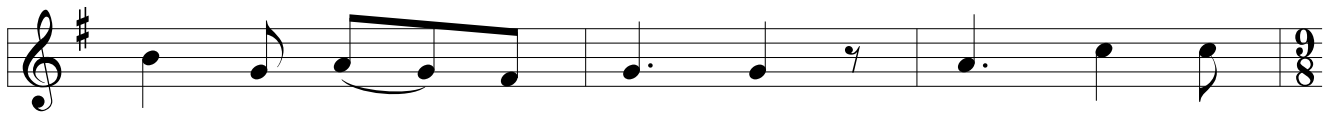

1. Ga - bri - el from hea - ven's king, sent to the mai - de
2. Mild - ly to him an - swer - ed the gen - tle mai - de
3. When the maid - en un - der - stood, the an - gel's word— re -

4 swee - te, brought her bliss - ful ti - ding and then - ne: "How then shall I bear a child when ceiv - ing, mild - ly and with gen - tle mood re -

7

fair he gan— to greet her: Hail be thou, I know not— a man - ne?" Th'an - gel did plied, in all— be - liev - ing: "The hand - maid

10

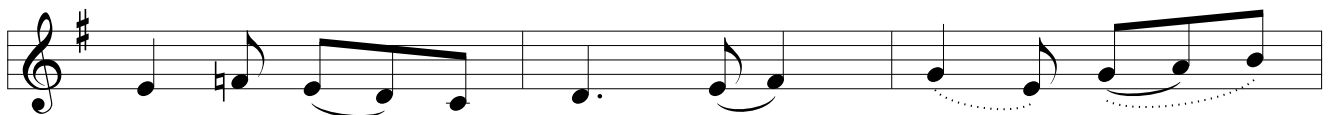

full of grace— a - right, for— god - des son, this heav'n - ly say, Nay dread— thee nought, through the Ho - ly Ghost shall be— y - of the Lord— am I, be it un - to me as thou— dost 13

light, for— man - nes love— will man— be - come through wrought this— il - ke thing— of which— I sing and say; May— all this be— ful - fil - led, since thee, o mai - de bright, man - kind— for— to man - kind shall— be bought through— this, your swee - te that it is— His will I— shall a bles - sed

16

19

ma - ke free of sin and de - vil's might.— child - ing, and out of pain— be brought.— mo - ther be, al - though a vir - gin still."—