

Duan Nollag

Irish, arr. Alan Cutts

Andante lento; dolce espressivo

Sop. 1

1. O wel - come, ho - ly in - fant, Though so poor your ro - yal bed; It is
 2. O wel - come oncemore, Je - sus, Now your life here has be - gun; O

Sop. 2

1. Wel come, ho - ly in - fant, Thoughpooryour ro - yal bed: glo -
 2. Wel come once more, Je - sus, your life herehas be - gun; O

Alto

1. Wel - come, in - fant, though so poor life your bed; It is
 2. Wel - come, Je - sus, now your life has be - gun; O

6

glo - rious, this sta - ble bare, For love sur - rounds your pre - cious head. Ti - ny coun - te - nance more beau - teous, More ra - diant than the sun. All my coun - te - nance though bare, your pre - cious diant head. Ti - ny O beau - teous, ra - diant sun. All my glo - rious, though bare, your pre - cious diant head. Ti - ny coun - te - nance beau - teous, O ra - diant sun. All my

10

in - fant who is great, New - born ba - by who is old, So heart to you is gi - ven, And my watch here will I keep; Re -

in - fant who is great, ba - by who is old, so heart to you is gi - ven, And my watch will I keep; Re -

in - fant who is great, New - born ba - by who is old, So heart to you is gi - ven, And my watch will I keep; Re -

14

small there with - in the man - ger, You whom heav'n can - not hold.
 ceive now this kiss of wel - come, As we sing you to sleep.

small in the man - ger, I will hold.
 ceive this wel - come, sing to sleep.

small in the man - ger, I will hold.
 ceive this wel - come, sing to sleep.