

Three Irish Folksongs

for female voices
or recorders

(English only edition)

arranged by

Alan Cutts

19

Ah those fine spark - ling day and by night I think of your spark - ling eyes, Ah

22

eyes, pi - ty, ah pi - ty, to - mor - row we say good - bye.
pi - ty me that to - mor - row we say good - bye.

26 mf brillante mf marcato 3. Far west her coun - te - 3. Far west in Er - ris her love - ly coun - te - mf brillante

3. Far to the west her coun - te - nance,

28

nance, As wife I'd her en - sonce, nance; With - in my house as wife I'd her en -
As wife I'd her en - sonce,

31

Take a mes - sage: oh I will sconce. O take her a mes - sage: If I have kissed her Oh take a mes - sage: I'll 34

kiss her, If some cat - tle they'd once, I'd kiss her a - gain if some cat - tle they'd give per - kiss her if Some cat - tle they'd 37 give per - chance. 4. I'll chance. 4. Ah take him this mes - sage: I give per - chance. 4. I'll

41

stay free, I will will not mar - ry thee, Since I have heard with keep my - self free,

44

not, not cat - tle you speak of me. I have not wealth nor

I will not,

47

mar - ry

much of a dow - ry; You may wed who you will, but not mar -

50

thee, No, I will not mar-

I shall keep me free.

ry thee, mar-ry thee.